BASEBALL

BY PETE FRITCHIE

WASHINGTON, D.C.--The New York Yankees, once the terror of all baseball, are on the way. If there's any doubt about that, one need ask only Billy Martin, who must still hold the Yankees in awe.

Last season Martin's club lost three straight to the Yankees late in the season, and it almost cost the Tigers the pennant in the east. Recently they dropped five in a row to the Yankees, an unprecedented humiliation in recent years for the Bengals, the last four decisions by one run, a clear indication there is either something psychological at work or morale problems among the Detroiters.

The establishment of such mastery over the Tigers is shocking, since they are the team to beat and since they, with Cleveland, are one of the two teams which has never surrendered in awe to the once-powerful Yankees. In fact, for many years the Tigers have been the target of spoilers to the Yankees.

Back in the great days of the McCarthy Yankees, it was the Tigers in 1940 (as in 1934 and 1935) who won the American League flag. They did it again in 1945, though then they slept for 23 years. But even in that long slumber, they had the reputation of Yankee killers.

Martin has thus far been a successful manager; Ralph Houk seems, however, to have the ex-Yankee's number.

ABOUT YOUR HOME

By April Rhodes

Bee stings can be fatal. Watch for symptoms such as respiratory difficulties, nausea, abdominal cramps and diarrhea.

To prevent crushed collars on shirts when packing for vacation, place socks in the ring of the collar.

A paper towel in the crisper drawer of your refrigerator will keep the drawer clean and absorb moisture.

To keep your swimsuit bright wash it often (but gently) to remove chlorine from pools and salt from ocean water.

A mixing center in the kitchen (with all mixers and utensils within reach) is even more time-saving when located next to the sink.

Don't ever put poison or insecticides in a soft drink bottle. Small children lose their lives every year from such carelessness.

Help your baby or toddler stay cooler during hot, humid days by applying baby powder--especially in skin folds. Mommie might try it also.

In memory of our dear Mother, Grandmother, and loving wife, Mrs. Gertie G. Jamerson, who passed away one year ago, July 21, 1972.
